

Pretty Pennies, Every Penny Counts

Prime & Prim Scholarships & Apprenticeships

By: Gabrielle Lowery

By now we all know about the highly anticipated Experience Showcase and that it will be the biggest event highlighting the various sectors of the art world. It's hard to contain our excitement as we prepare to participate and witness the unique talent and creativity of art professionals from all over the world, who are looking to begin their creative careers. But what if I told you there is more?

It's true. As an aspiring creative with interests in performance, design, fashion, production, visual arts or related fields, you have the chance to receive one of the scholarships offered at The Experience Showcase.

Not only can you earn a scholarship but you will be given the opportunity to participate in Prime and Prim Studio of the Arts scholarship apprenticeship program, to gain even more industry field experience that will help to begin molding you into one of the best creative professionals. These apprenticeship job opportunities are created to give professional knowledge from specialists within your field to help teach you the necessary skills and more through hands on experience.

So, if you are a college student or upper class high school student that envisions yourself on a stage with a spotlight singing or dancing, behind a sewing machine and dressing mannequins with fashionable clothes, as a model or as a traveling visual artist and musician, or any other type of creative living the dream, then I urge you to stop now and apply to volunteer or participate in The Experience Showcase at <https://www.primeprim2013.com/> and earn the chance to receive one of these scholarships.

Are you still here?

Then let me tell you about some more opportunities because Pretty Pennies, Every Penny Counts believes in elevating ALL aspiring art professionals and definitely has more scholarships and apprenticeships to offer you.

You heard me, there's more.

We have a Model Fitness scholarship and Underground Cockpit scholarship offered to college and upper class high school students pursuing majors in dance, fitness, fashion, performing arts, and similar fields. These scholarships are offered through six month campaigns aimed to advertise and market the importance of fitness and dance. Like the other scholarships, they offer the opportunity to earn industry field experience through scholarship apprenticeship job opportunities at Prime and Prim Studio of the Arts.

Regardless of your creative career, Pretty Pennies, Every Penny Counts has scholarships and apprenticeships designed to take you to the next level and help to start your journey towards becoming an art professional.

Each event and campaign gives you opportunities to learn, have fun and receive mentorship along with scholarships, to advance and prepare you for the creative art career you are pursuing.

So, sign up to volunteer and participate in one or several of the various events and campaigns at <https://www.primeprim2013.com/> . And apply for these amazing apprenticeships and scholarships now!
